

Equality Statement

Dunadd Community Enterprise has a commitment to deliver its functions and duties in a fair and equitable way to the community. The principles behind all the Companies activities is that:

Services and projects offered should be relevant to the needs of the local community, reflecting the diversity of its religious and cultural heritage, advertised in a readily understandable format (avoiding jargon) and wherever possible developed in partnership with local people.

Services and projects will be provided on the basis of fairness and openness. No one will receive less favourable treatment because of their race, nationality, colour, ethnic or national origin, religion or beliefs, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, age or disability.

In its service and project delivery, the Dunadd Community Enterprise aims to:
Acknowledge, value and celebrate the diversity within the community and society at large and to deliver services and projects that meet the needs of individuals and the community.
